

BUREAU FOR OPEN CULTURE

CALL FOR SHORT FILM ENTRIES

Deadline for entries: Sept. 26, 2008

Audio Visual Materials is part Dewey Decimal Days organized by the Bureau for Open Culture at Columbus College of Art & Design.

The Bureau for Open Culture presents Dewey Decimal Days, a five-day series of events and activities organized in celebration of libraries, reading, and a love for all-things related to books. On October 16, 2008, at Studio 35 Audio Visual Materials will feature a selection of short films related to librarians, books, reading, thick-dark-rimmed glasses, card catalogues, Dewey Decimal System, shushing and generally anything drawing inspiration from the role libraries play in our daily lives.

WE INVITE YOU TO SUBMIT A SHORT FILM RELATED TO DEWEY DECIMAL DAYS!

The selected shorts will be screened the evening of October 16 prior to a feature film especially chosen by librarians. Afterwards, the short films will also be available for viewing on the website of the Bureau for Open Culture (<http://bureauforopenculture.org/>). To learn more about Dewey Decimal Days and other events go to <http://bureauforopenculture.org/ofotherspaces.html#anchorDDD>
